Undergraduate Learning Center

Why?

- Library and Student Center built over three decades ago
- Thirty years of growth
  - Enrollment up 75%
  - On-campus students up 100%
  - Degree programs up 100%
  - Planned growth will continue
- Opportunities for technology-based education on/off campus
  - Leveraging student computer requirement; FutureNet
  - Internet delivery to housing, classrooms and other sites
- Need to consolidate academic support services, e.g.
  - Co-operative education
  - International study opportunities
- Renew and optimize use of existing space
- To create a comprehensive, collaborative learning environment enhanced by technology.

What is Included:

- Interactive classroom facilities
- Undergraduate library resources
- Academic support
- Computer labs/distributed clusters
- Group study and tutorial rooms
- Informal meeting space
- Dining and retail services
Project Site:
Academic core of campus near Library & Student Center

Georgia Tech
Undergraduate Learning Center

Project Description:
- Included in Campus Master Plan
- Gross Square Feet - 225,000
- Total project cost - $46 million
  - State - $33 million
  - Georgia Tech - $13 million