The attempt on Lenin's life was one of the significant events that marked the beginning of the Red Terror. An estimated 800 socialists were arrested and shot without trial in the next few months.
Tell us the names we'd really like to hear.
Fanya Kaplan fired three shots at Vladimir Lenin, two of which severely wounded him. Lenin survived, but the wounds are speculated to have caused his eventual death.