Baseball, Tennis, Track, Swimming, Fencing, Golf—ordinary students do their bit for the school—long hours of practice—victory...
With the return of most of the 1940 squad the baseball team played a red hot brand of ball for the first eight games. The season started with two victories over Tennessee at home on the 4th and 5th of May. The Jackets took to the road over Easter and beat Vanderbilt and Kentucky two games each. The season was now well under way and Howard Burpo led the batters with Hearn a close second. The best team is the Southeastern Conference went to Auburn the next week end and beat them two straight games. By this time all of Tech was impatiently waiting for the day when the Yellow Jack... ets would knock Bob Smith of Georgia out of the box; but after splitting a two-game series with Florida, and losing two games to Auburn, sportsmen began to wonder about the outcome of the Georgia-Tech series on May 2nd and 3rd. Finally the big day dawned. The Jackets all but knocked Smith off the mound in the eighth to score four runs, but in their half of the ninth Georgia scored five runs after Pluto Oliver walked three men to fill the bases. Tech failed to score in their half.

of the ninth, and went down in a bitter 9-7 defeat. The second game of the series, played in Athens, went to Georgia.

Although the last half of the season resulted in a slump, many individual abilities were brought out. Howard Burpo, who went from first base to the mound this year, proved that the old saying, "Pitchers don't make good hitters," was wrong. He led the team all the way through the season with an average of .412.

The 1941 swimming team undertook the most ambitious schedule in the history of the school by meeting every leading college team in the South.

Ward, Demere, and McCarty were a good combination in the distance events, while Bates, Stradtman, and Newman took care of the sprints.

The diving squad this year was composed of "Dynamite" Goodloe, Lewis, Goforth, and Wannamaker. Newman, McCarty, Stradtman, and Bates formed the fastest relay team in the school's history. Cargile, Blackhear, and Hubert took care of the breast-stroke events in good style.

With reinforcements from last year's undefeated freshmen, and under the guidance of Captain Ward, the season's record proved to be very good.

In the conference meet, which was held again this year in the Tech pool, the Tech team pressed Florida for team honors.
The tennis schedule this spring is one of the longest and toughest we have ever encountered. The loss of Russell Bobbitt, one of the outstanding college players in the south, leaves the team weakened considerably. But with several of last year’s netmen returning, the squad will probably develop into a strong and formidable team ready to face any school in the south.

The 1941 season opened with the North Carolina Indoor invitation meet at Chapel Hill. Five Georgia Tech men participated and those five men brought home a third place for the Tech cinder team. Dick Power won the high jump, Plaxico and Bryan placed in the hurdles, Mumma in the dashes and Smith in pole vault, to give Tech 13 points and a third place in the meet.

A creditable showing was made in the Annual Florida Relay. The Tech team came fourth in a field of twelve. Particularly outstanding was George Webb's javelin throw of 195 feet.

Captain Monroe Plaxico then led the Tech team through its season of dual meets. Only one defeat and that at the hands of Alabama in the first meet of the season. Florida, Georgia, Tennessee and a victory over the Smith's best in the A. A. U.

Billy Weeks vaulted over the bar with the standards set at 13 feet four inches for a new school record. He was fidfollowed closely by Loftin Smith, who is expected to duplicate Weeks' feat in meets to come.

Ed Ryckely has no doubt provided Tech fans with big thrills by pushing his 200 pounds down the track at the rate of 100 yards in 10 seconds. Harlan Mumma and Plaxico finished just behind Ed in both dashes.

Captain Plaxico has been hard to beat this year in the 220-yard low hurdles and he and Morris Bryan have alternated winning the 120 high hurdles. Another strong runner is Whitney who specializes in the 440.

Ed Coughlin and Bill McGuire running the mile and half mile runs have proved to be hard to beat. Walter Connelly in half mile has also proved his worth.

In the field events besides Webb in the javelin, the Jackets boast of such strong men as Bartlett, Wist, and Saunders.

Tech's golf team, weakened by the graduation of five of its members, is supported this year by the return of Dan Yates, Bob Thompson, Harold Florence, and Sidney Gayle, all members of last year's squad. So far this season, the team has defeated Tennessee twice, Alabama, and Florida, while losing only to Michigan. The team is rounding into shape well and shows promise of a very successful season.

Under the direction of Coach R. T. Morenus the fencing team has excellent chances for a very successful season, with most of last year's squad returning and several promising freshmen coming up. Starting the season with a bang, the foilsmen have won their first two matches, beating Kentucky 9-7 and Vanderbilt 10-8.

This year many intramural sports were available to the members of the student body without the ability to play on the varsity teams. The Interfraternity Council sponsored the interfraternity basketball in the winter and softball and tennis in the spring. Every Friday night the fraternities participated in the bowling league sponsored by the Bulldog Club. Also included among the intramural sports were basketball and softball among the dormitories and basketball among the co-op classes. A great number were given the opportunity to participate, and everyone enjoyed the friendly contests.
