repeated the performance a few moments later by intercepting a pass and running 11 yards to score. Helms made good all three placements.

Tech 41, Tulane 7.

The Tech line looked very formidable throughout the afternoon. Deane Gaines played a great game at tackle in his last game before being transferred by the Navy.

TECH 7, L. S. U. 9

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 17—With six minutes to go, Tech's 7-6 edge looked secure enough in this hard fought game. However, the L. S. U. Tiger went on to win 7-6 with a thrilling field goal in the last two minutes of play. It was Tech's first conference defeat. 27,000 fans witnessed the best game of the year on Grant Field to date.

Louisiana State scored in the second quarter after having one effort stalled on the goal line. They had moved nearly 80 yards, but the Jacket line held. Most of this drive took place in the closing minutes of the first quarter. After being stopped once the Tigers came back and covered 27 yards in seven plays to score. Sandifer went over. The conversion try was missed and the half ended with L. S. U. ahead 6-0.

The third period was nearly all Tech. The Jackets drove to the State 7 and later to the 17 before being stopped. Finding it tough going on the ground the Engineers took successfully to the air. The passes were accurate and colorful—Holsinger and Mathews on the passing end of most of them. Midway in the fourth quarter Tech started on her touchdown drive that carried all the way—84 yards in nine plays. Holsinger started on a kicked return, jumped up and tossed the ball eight yards to Kilzer for the score. It was spectacular, yard-for-yard stuff. Big Tech Helms came out and kicked the point that made it Tech 7, L. S. U. 6.

Tech kicked to L. S. U. and unthrew the receiver on his own 14. Fans edged toward the acts. However, a penalty forced the Jackets to kick again. This time Montgomery carried the ball to the Tech 18. The injured Gene Parnell came into the ball game for L. S. U. A series of runs, passes and a pass made it fourth down on the Tech 20. The wind was against him. It was a sharp angle, yet Kilzer calmly placed the ball between the uprights to put the game on ice for the Tigers. L. S. U. 9, Tech 7.

Tech teams were pretty evenly matched. L. S. U. had as big and hard driving backfield as the Jackets have encountered all season. They ran through the Engineer's forward wall more easily than any other team. Lindsey and Trapani were standout Tiger linemen. Montgomery and Sandifer led the backfield.

Captain Paul Duke looked good for Tech as did stellar tackle Bobby Davis. George Mathews led all the ground gainers with 110 yards from snap. Holsinger and Kilzer contributed greatly to the Tech cause.

TECH 7, CLEMSON 21

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 24—The Clemson Tigers thoroughly outplayed the Engineers of Georgia Tech before 20,000 stunned fans today and returned to their North Carolina battlegrounds with a 21-7 upset victory. The supposed Wealth before the Georgia game proved to be anything but true to the masked Yellow Jackets. It was Clemson's first win of the series since 1916 and their second since 1907. This was the 21st meeting of the two schools.

The Tigers scored on the starting line-up of speed and stringers on a drive of 61 yards covered in nine plays. It was Coach Dodd's hope to rest his regulars as much as possible. Poe, Butler and Reynolds carried the ball to the Tech 11. Reynolds kicked over in two plays. Cagle converted.

The Tech regulars rushed in to start the second period. However, the Tigers were too hot to stop. This time it took them seven plays to cover 70 yards for a touchdown midway in the period. Butler went over from the 17 on a nice run. During this time the Clemson line play was holding up the Jackets. The Techmen were badly outchaged for the first time all year. The center of the line was tramped and the defensive tackling was poor. The half ended with Tech behind 14-0.

The Tech variety started the second half. Peek almost scored on a 35 yard run but was hauled down. Clemson intercepted a pass and Butler quick-kicked. Near the end of the period Tech started on its 22. Mathews went 33. Then a pass from Mathews to Kilzer put the ball on the Clemson 27 as the quarter ended. On the next play Holsinger connected with Brown on the goal line who went over for a touchdown. Helms converted and it was Clemson 14, Tech 7.

On the next kick-off Clemson started back 21 yards in seven plays to put the game away. This time it was Butler going over from the 4. Cagle converted.

Tech tried desperately, but to no avail, to score again. The Clemson line stopped the ground game, the receivers were covered well, and they used the quick kick effectively.

The Jackets with their minds on the Georgia game next week were no match for the alert Clemson Tigers, intent upon an upset. Clemson 21, Tech 7.

TECH 0, GEORGIA 33

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 1—Georgia Tech saw end today. Most of it was on the backs of Georgia players rushing by as the Bulldogs exploded to a 33-0 victory. Charlie Trippi, a great back, threw three touchdown passes and scored one himself to lead the way. The other Georgia score came on a pass interception by Floyd Reid.

It took Georgia only ten minutes to go ahead in the ball game 7-0. Hatcher had quick-kicked 51 yards for Tech to the Bulldog 29. Trippi threw a long one on second down to Smith on the Tech 36, and he eluded two would be tacklers to score. Jernigan converted. The quarter ended with Georgia on its own 20.

Lunsing, Holsinger and Peek were stopped and then Davis booted one 19 yards from his own 21 to the Georgia 10. Georgia came back all the way but Lunsing and Tech recovered in the end zone. Tech got no place and Davis kicked out. Georgia lost the ball on down on the Tech 18. On third down Reid intercepted Mathews's pass and ran 41 yards to score. Jernigan missed and it was Georgia 14-0.

Georgia threatened once more before the half, but Basler broke it up with a pass interception on his own 30. The half ended Georgia 13, Tech 0.

The third period was a big one for the Bulldogs as they scored twice. The first one came on the first play after the half. Basler threw from his own 35 to Morely on the Tech 29. The latter caught it for a touchdown. He ran it in to make it 21 to 0.

The second one came after starting from the Bulldog 42. Jernigan missed. Georgia 21, Tech 0.
