After playing before a capacity audence at the Georgia Military Academy auditorium Tuesday night, the Tech Glee Club embarked on the first raid of the season Wednesday morning. Performances will be held that afternoon at Trion, Dalton, Rome and Chattanooga.

The performance went off in brilli-ent style at the G. M. A. auditorium Tuesday night, the final curtain was lowered on the show which was prefaced one of the best acted of any pre-ted at all. The performance was an entertainment for the audience.
Tapes used in the production are:

sioner in chemistry. Mr. Blalock

Mr. Blalock's recent recognition was awarded after the 1920-21 football season, in which his team achieved a final ranking of fourth. In this season, the Tech team played against a variety of opponents including the University of South Carolina, and the University of Alabama. Blalock was particularly noted for his leadership and strategy on the field.

The eloped sausage which, when placed between the halves of a roll with mustard, does not lose its importance in the refreshments at such occasions as circuses, fairs and dances at Druid Hills has been spelled out in every language by pur­veyors and friends. We remember many such spellings as w-e-i-n-e-r, k-u-c-k-i-e, h-a-n-d-d-o-g, and h-o-w-d-o-g. But the refreshment which now at Drills last Thursday night pulled an entirely new rendition (see foregoing item). The stool announced WENIERS for sale.

Vanity in the fair sex has often been held up to ridicule by the sup­posed vanity-free males. There are, however, a number of men whose pride in their personal appearance leads them to absurd lengths. After which sermon we shall cite concrete ex­amples. Take the case of Jimmy Lester. Jimmy has a curl in his hands of the Business Manager by 5:00 P.M.

Men and women of Pomona College at Claremont, Cal., have been appear­ing on their campus minus shoes and stockings. It was necessary to rent to this expedition because of a rain­fall of 6.11 inches.

The neighbors of one of the fra­ternities there have complained to the Dean that the noise coming from said house is appalling. It seems that they don't object to bowls and shrieks up to 3 a.m., but after that time, they think the disturb­ance too great. They even accused their victoria playing, a few playful mur­ders, and like sounds. Aren't some people unreasonable?

ALONG THE AVENUE

Alpha Lambda Tau

Last Friday night, Alpha Lambda Tau gave their convention dance at the Atlanta Biltmore Hotel and it was, in our humble opinion, one of the best formal dances there have been in these parts in quite a while. The ballroom was draped in old gold and black, the colors of the fraternity, while the orchestra sat before a background of the same colors. The music was right, the crowd was right and so were we, which all contributed towards a large night generally. A feature of the evening was (or were) two special exhibitions done by an extraordinarily well-stacked up young lady. The first was one of those Oriental thought-oddballs where dancing is done by the legs and whatnot than by the feet and the second was another variation of the Black Bottom, performed, if possible, in fewer clothes than its predecessor. Although it was most unfortunate that one of the light fixtures had to slip in the midst of the hey! hey!, depositing the dancer, in no uncertain terms upon the floor, that she had just learned how to dance was the large percentage of the “college set” (for members along with genuine enthusiasm. Kappa Alpha

The Alpha Sigma chapter of Kappa Alpha gave a most enjoyable dance Saturday night at Druid Hills. The feature that impressed us most about the dance was the large percentage of girls who attended. It is true that only about one-half of the “town” girls. Fully one-half seemed to be from downtown, Griffin or what have you.

Excellent sandwiches and punch were served and, in spite of clashes from evidence to the contrary, the dance was most sedate and orderly. Charlie Trout singing the symphonies along with genuine enthusiasm.

On Tuxedos

We were also greatly impressed by the number of “gentlemens” who attended this “formal” dance unadorned by tuxedos. It has always seemed to us that if one’s hosts invite one to a formal dance, the least one can do, by way of common courtesy, is to go in a tuxedo.

Charley Trout speeding the syncopation with his baritone was, to our taste, one of the best of the evening. There was no question of the dance originating. You, we had an excellent time.

Many Institutions Entered In Relays

Sixty-one institutions have already entered the Tech relay carnival to be held on Grant Field, April 9, which annually draws the choice talent from the leading schools of the country. For the next two weeks entries are expected to find their way to the athletic office to complete the program for this gala event.

Invitations were mailed out to colleges, high schools, preparatory schools and junior schools all over the country and a majority of the institutions accepting at the relay carnival is looked upon as one of the greatest in the country.

Events will be held for all college students, prep and junior high, and the youngtimers from the grammar schools will also participate.

—and then some!

IN the field of communication great strides have been taken—and greater will be taken. And just as the carrier pigeon is in telephony is an infinitely better vehicle for communication than the carrier pigeon, so new and greater developments lie ahead.

Today, as never before, this field offers an opportunity for constructive work in design, purchasing, manufacture, finance, distribution and other phases. In short, a marvelous field of work in which the ultimate horizon still lies far beyond any present view.

SWIMMING TEAM DROPS MEETS TO BROOKLYN AND YALE TEAMS

Tech Makes Good Showing on First Invasion North

NEW HAVEN, CONN., March 15—Dave Young, star Jacket swimmer, tied the national intercollegiate record for the 150-yard back stroke here Monday night, as the Yale University swimmers defeated Georgia Tech 46 to 16, swimming the event in 1 minute and 43.6 seconds. The victory for the Yale Bulldogs was another step forward toward their tenth intercollegiate championship in eleven years.

The Tech swimmer was the outstanding star for the Southerners, not only tying the record in the back stroke, but also taking second in the 100-yard dash, barely being nosed out by House, of Yale. The time for the event was 56.6 seconds, the fastest the House has ever sprinted the event. Had Yale entered House in the 150-yard, thereby furnishing the proper competition a new world's mark might have been set. One or the other would have shattered the existing record, for it was only two weeks ago that House lost the world's record to Fis- (Continued on Page 7, Column 1)

College Football Comes To End

Spring football work at Tech came to an end Thursday when the last of a series of scrimmages between Coach Alexander's two picked teams was held, marking the end of one of the most successful spring sessions held on the flats since the practice was inaugurated some years ago.

For the past several weeks the yard has been divided into two teams known as the Charlestonians and the Black Buttonsmen. The length of the scrimmages has been determined by the time required to run a given number of plays. The two teams, one under the direction of Coach Miller and Fischer and the other under Coach Rikelman and Carson, have been evenly matched and neither has gained to much advantage over the other. However, the men on both squads have been showing up unusually well and several new men will be heard from next fall.

My Dear Percy:

Last week I wrote you what happened to me up to the time of my wedding. Wedding! Percy, how I shivered when I thought of the word. Do you remember the romantic ideas that we used to have of weddings! My poor nerves could stand no more. My delicate seems a birthright. Oh, and to marry a girl to whom in any form Percy! What shivers of chagrin swept me again. And I would desist. Of course, now I know that the words that frightened me were merely portions of the title of a well-known modern novel, which is not, however, among the recent acquisitions of the Library of the Georgia School of Technology.

I must stop now, Percy, for it is time to eat my Fleischmann's Yeast. But one thing worries me. Could my lack of covering have been a BOBBED-HAIRED BANDIT? CECIL.

P. S.—Percy, I have made a lovely BIRTHDAY cake. It contains 300 raisins, 38 currants, 35 dates, 32 prunes, 31 figs, 30 dates, and 29 apricots.

Razor Blades

Save money by using a sharp razor blade. Williams Shaving Cream softens the beard bristles so completely that the razor just glides through them. This eliminates "pull" and lengthens the life of your blades. Then, Williams lubricates the skin for easy shaving and leaves it glove-smooth after the shave. Two sizes—35c and 50c.

series last year. However, Coach Clay has assembled another promising team this year as proved by the showing they made against the Crackers last Saturday.

Just who will draw the slab assignment is not yet known but it is probable that Johnny Conn will hurl the game this afternoon. Captain Tom Angley will do the receiving. Tom was one of the famous combination of home run hitters of last year's team and his bat will probably again come in for considerable service in these games. John Brewer will be on first, Shorty Smith will hold down the short stop position with Bob Montland at second, Ed Crowley will be on third, rounding out a fast stepping infield. Parham, Waddy and either Yeomans or McCash will make up the outfield. Both Parham and Waddy were outstanding stars on last year's freshman outfit, while Yeomans and McCash are veterans from last year's varsity.

The Jackets' engagement with the Crackers last Saturday should prove to be of help to them in this series, which promises to make these games all the more interesting.
