ON THESE TWO PAGES you see depicted scenes from various varsity sports at Georgia Tech. None of these pictures could have been taken, if it had not been for the untiring work of the Yellow Jacket Trainer—Buck Andel.

It takes hours upon hours to put any varsity team on the field, diamond, or court. Hours of work behind the scenes by Mr. Andel and his staff of managers. Equipment must be kept in order, injuries must be cared for, and upon Mr. Andel’s shoulders these responsibilities fall.

For his great contribution to Georgia Tech Athletics, the Sports Staff takes pride in dedicating this Sports Section of the 1958 Blue Print to Buck Andel.

1957 Captain - Don Stephenson

AFTER STUDY AND PRACTICE, DON SPENDS ALL AVAILABLE TIME WITH HIS BEAUTIFUL WIFE, KAREN, AND THEIR FIVE MONTH OLD SON, KEITH.
THE 1957 EDITION OF the Yellow Jackets compiled a 4-4-2 record, and failed to land a Major Bowl bid for the first time since 1951. It was a team depleted of experience due to graduation losses, but the young Jackets fought hard and gave a good account of themselves in each contest.

Kentucky came into Grant Field on September 21st for the season’s opener, and were thrashed 13-0. Tech scored late in the first quarter following a sustained 60-yard drive. Stan Flowers skirted end for the final 7 yards and the first TD of the year. Cal James added the PAT. The final score came on a pass from Fred Braselton to Jerry Nabors early in the third quarter.

Southern Methodist University and rain were the opponents of the Jackets the following weekend. Although completely dominating the statistics, the Jackets were unable to push a score across and the contest ended 0-0.

Tech then ran into an inspired LSU Tiger in Baton Rouge and suffered their first loss of the campaign 20-13. Fred Braselton sneaked over from the 1-yard line for Tech’s first score, capping a 68-yard drive late in the second quarter. Early in the fourth period, the Jackets again drove 73-yards for their final tally; Fred Braselton passing to Jerome Green for the last 5 yards and the score.

The highly regarded, and later Number 1, Auburn Tigers furnished the next opposition for Tech. The Tigers were unable to penetrate the impregnable Tech defense, but Billy Atkins booted a 14-yard field goal early in the second quarter and the Jackets suffered a heart-breaking 3-0 loss.

A brilliant 91-yard second half kickoff return by Lester Simmerville sparked the Jackets to a 20-13 victory over the Tulane Green Wave. Cal James and Jim Benson accounted for the other Tech scoring.

The Homecoming encounter with Duke brought forth the greatest showing of the Jackets of the year. The Doddmens completely dominated the play, and walked off with a 13-0 victory. In the second period Tech started a drive from its own 41. Jim Benson’s running combined with Braselton to Anderson passes carried to the Duke 1-yard stripe where Benson crashed over for the first Jacket score. A Braselton to Simmerville pass following the second half kickoff accounted for Tech’s final score.
Tennessee proved a rough and ready foe next for the Jackets, and trounced them 21-6. Tech was unable to score until the final seconds, Paul Vickers taking a pass for the only TD. Urban Henry kicked a fourth quarter 27-yard field goal to eke out a victory over stubborn Alabama 10-7. Bama led 7-0 at the end of three periods, but Tech rallied for 10 in the final stanza. Rain once again came to Grant Field, and the defense-minded Jackets held Florida to 0-0 tie, although coming out on the short end of the statistics. The law of averages finally caught up with the Yellow Jackets on November 30th. Georgia broke a long "drought" and defeated the Jackets 7-0. Fullback Theron Sapp accounted for the games only score late in the third quarter.

B-Team Prepares Varsity For Foes

THE GEORGIA TECH B-Team, directed by Coaches Dick Inman, Bob Cummins, and Jim Luck, better known around the flats as the “Red Dogs,” had no regularly scheduled games this season. As a result of this they spent many hours studying the plays of the teams which were to oppose the varsity. Once the plays were learned, the B-Teamers then proceeded to play the part of Tech’s coming opponents against the varsity defenses. These daily practice sessions form a major part of the game preparation in the Georgia Tech coaching program. The thoroughness with which these men did their jobs is evident in the Varsity’s outstanding record through the years.

This year the “Red Dog” team was marked by the enthusiasm and high spirit with which they carried out their assignments. Many of these men who were red-shirted this year have an excellent chance to play some varsity ball next year or in the years to come.

Prominent among these men are Fred Murphy, Wiley Geren, Emmette Wilson, Jimmy Rose and Jimmy Schuman, who all did an outstanding job in the Annual T-Day Game.

It can readily be said that the quality of the B-Team makes or breaks the varsity. So based on the past performance of the players, and the outstanding quality of the coaching, we here at Tech find it hard to believe that there could be any higher quality of B-Team program anywhere in the country.
THE BABY JACKETS had their first test of the season against South Carolina and they met this test with all the spirit of a really great team. This spirit was not wasted for Tech emerged with a 19-0 victory. Reggie Logan reached pay dirt twice on the ground and a Snooks Saye to Chick Granning pass accounted for the final score.

Tech had even more success against their next opponent, which was Clemson. Ben Smith, Reggie Logan, and Charlie Rose each scored once. A Marvin Tibbets pass to Gerald Burch, plus a safety rendered Tech a 30-0 victory.

In the season's finale against Georgia at Rose Bowl Field, the Dogs took an early lead of 7 which stood until Frank Nix scored in the third period to knot the count. Georgia counted again in the final period to send the Jackets down 13-7. Tech counted in the final seconds on a pass from Tibbets to Vic Laxon, but Tech was guilty of an infraction on the play and the Dogs prevailed.

All during the season the line play of the baby Jackets was outstanding. Led by tackles Billy Shaw and Ed Nutting, assisted by end Gerald Burch and guard George Swanson, the forward wall opened up huge holes for the backs and rendered misery to the opponents.

Harriers Finish Fourth In SEC

THE CROSS COUNTRY squad of Georgia Tech, under Coach Dean George Griffin, had a difficult time during the regular season as Alabama was the only Southeastern Conference opponent they were able to defeat in a meet.

Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Tennessee, Troy State, and Bryan University administered defeats to the hapless harriers during the regular season, but the Southeastern Conference meet, which determines team standings was a different story.

Led by Cole Bryan and Jim Bergert, the Jackets avenged their season's defeats, and turned on their tormentors from Florida, Georgia and Tennessee. Tech finished fourth behind Mississippi, Kentucky and Auburn, to end the season on a successful note.

THIS YEAR'S GEORGIA TECH basketball team ended the season with a 15-11 overall record and an 8-6 SEC record. The 8-6 record was good enough for a tie for fourth place in a very well balanced SEC conference race. At the end of the season Bud Blemker, who broke several school records, and Terry Randall were named to a number of honor teams. Dave Denton, a sophomore sensation, was voted one of the best Sophomores in the SEC.

The Yellow Jackets opened the season with Davidson College in the Alexander Memorial Coliseum. Tech combined a sharp offense with a strong defense to beat Davidson 74-52. Alabama’s Crimson Tide was next to visit “Big Alex” but the Jackets tripped the Tide in fairly easy fashion, 73-62. Tech departed Dec. 6 for Columbia, S. C., for the Jackets’ first road game of the year. South Carolina edged Tech 70-64 for the first loss of the season. When the Jackets returned, the Red Raiders from Texas Tech, greeted the Techsters with a 67-64 loss. Two days later Baylor, of the S.W. Conference, moved into the “Dome” for a thriller which was won on a last second shot by small but mighty Terry Randall, 61-59. The Georgia Bulldogs came into the city and played the Jackets...

their best game of the young season, beating Tech, 69-68, in an overtime thriller. In the last game before the Jackets were to travel to Detroit, Michigan, for the Motor City Tournament, V. P. I. caught Tech on a cold night and stunned Coach Hyder's charges 70-59.

During the Christmas Holidays, the Techmen worked hard in preparation for the Motor City Tournament. "Whack" Hyder granted his "boys" a three-day rest at home, with orders to be ready to "go" when they hit Detroit. The Jackets, well fed and well rested, came through, in the role of underdog, to topple Marquette, 67-58, the first night, and spurred on by an encouraging wire from Bobby Dodd, defeated Detroit, 70-66, to bring home a beautiful trophy for first place. The dribblers of Georgia Tech returned from Detroit in high spirits, much to the dismay of Furman, who was defeated easily, 74-64, in the Jackets' first home game after Christmas.

The Techmen opened the SEC schedule in Lexington, Ky., by losing a hard fought battle with "Baron" Rupp's N.C.A.A. champions, 76-60. One week later the Jackets entertained Mississippi State, number five in the nation at the time, with an 11-0 mark. Led by Dave Denton's 15 rebounds, the combination of Randall and Blemker's 50 total points, and Jim Johnson's superb defense on the All-American Bailey Howell, the Techsters mauled the Maroons, 78-61. Two days later the Jackets defeated the Rebels of Mississippi, 76-67. Vanderbilt's Commodores were the next to enter the "Dome." The Jackets beat Vandy by 21 points, 81-60, the worst the Commodores had been beaten in many years. This was the first win over Vandy in eight years for the Jackets and only the second in 13 years. The “Dogs” from Georgia once again entered the “Dome,” but the Techmen were on the high road and downed Georgia 72-59. Tech’s perennial foe, Auburn, faced the Jackets for the first time in the 57-58 season and downed the Techsters 80-72. The ever powerful Tennessee Volunteers journeyed to Atlanta for a big battle, but were sent home by a scrappy Tech team, carrying with them a 82-79 loss. Kentucky, who was on top of the SEC at the time with a 5-0 record, challenged Tech to take a shot at first place, and the Techsters did. After an evenly fought first half, the Jackets started to pull away in the second half. A crowd of about 7,600 people hollered, jumped, and watched as “Whack” Hyder’s boys humiliated Kentucky 71-52. During that joyous night a few hundred students had a small conference with President Harrison and together they declared a holiday. It should be mentioned here that this was the best team effort of the year and coupled with Denton’s 22 rebounds, Randall’s 26 points, and Blemker’s 21 points, it was, also, the best game of the year.

After a great home stand the dribblers took to the road. The first stop was Alabama. The Tide caught Tech on a cold night and got a good start. Without this good start they wouldn’t have stood a chance, but the Tide finally subdued Tech in a double overtime thriller, 72-74. The following Monday was a real Blue Monday for the Techmen. Auburn lowered the boom on Tech’s title hopes by handing the Jackets a 99-78 loss.

Tech returned for a final homestand against the 2 Louisiana teams, Tulane was first, and the Jackets thrashed them soundly, 69-53. LSU came two days later, and the Techmen bombed the Bengals 88-61 for the largest point spread of the year.

Coach “Whack” Hyder carried his “boys” to Knoxville for a big game against the Tennessee Volunteers. The Volunteers got hot the last half and knocked off the Techmen 82-65. A journey to the forsaken Woodruff Hall in Athens proved fatal for the Jackets. The Bulldogs nipped the Techsters 62-59. A trip to sunny Florida helped the Jackets defeat the Florida Gators in a thrilling overtime, 62-59. The Jackets, with bad luck on the road, traveled to Nashville for the last game of the season with Vandy Commodores. After a hard fought, courageous battle by the Techmen, Vandy clipped the Jackets 60-59.

Gymnasts Place Second In SIGL

THE GEORGIA TECH Gym Team placed second in the Southern Intercollegiate Gym League Meet after breaking even in six matches during the season. Florida State, which finished first in the SIGL dealt the Tech team two of its losses, the third coming at the hands of Pittsburgh.

The Yellow Jackets took two matches from Pensacola Naval Air Station, and one from Mississippi Southern to finish with an even .500 record.

Captain Bo Stokes was the most versatile man on the squad and also the top point man as he performed on the side horse, high bars, parallel bars, and ropes.

Free exercise and tumbling were Howie Moore’s forte, and he finished as the number two man.

Danny Morris on the high bar, Jim Duhig on the parallel bars, Mike Smith on the rings, Bill Rueland on the ropes, Tom Gibson doing free exercise, Dean Stonier on the trampoline, and Hal Pope on the side horse rounded out Coach Lyle Welser’s squad of lettermen.
Swimmers Finish Third In SEC

ALTHOUGH PLAGUED by one of their worst regular seasons in history, the Georgia Tech Swimmers rallied to take third place in the Conference in the Swim Meet.

Coach Lanoue's team suffered defeats by Citadel, Sewanee, Florida, Florida State, Duke and Georgia, while copping meets from Kentucky, Emory and Vanderbilt during the regular season.

In the SEC Swim Meet which determines the team conference standing, the Yellow Jackets finished third behind Florida and Georgia.

Co-Captains Charley Wiggins and Bob Dudley were the most consistent point getters. Wiggins competed in sprints while Dudley took the distance events.

Backing up the able captains were Bobby Langley in the butterfly and breast strokes, and Dave Williams, the team diver.

Head Coach

A TECH DIVER HITS THE WATER FROM THE HIGH BOARD.

TECH SWIMMERS CHEER THEIR TEAM-MATES ON FROM THE SIDELINES, AS THEY TRY TO BUILD UP POINTS IN THE DASH EVENTS.
FOR THE PAST THREE YEARS the Yellow Jackets have been endowed with some of the most potent hitters in the SEC, and one of the surest fielding infields in collegiate ranks, but the Conference title had eluded them because a front-line pitcher was not available.

In 1957, this missing ingredient came to Coach Pittard in the form of Buddy Blemker—a calm, steel-nerved, pokerfaced southpaw from Indiana. Blemker copped six victories during the regular season, four via the shutout route, and then took two from the Crimson Tide in the SEC playoffs to give Tech the Conference Crown.

Johnny Menger, Lane Akers and Grey Potter once again came through with sterling performances in the infield, and more than carried their load at the plate. Menger led the team in hitting with a .398 average, and Akers hit .345, including 6 home-runs and 26 RBIs.

Bobby Dover, Dick Gookin, and Earl Moore patrolled the outer garden with deft effectiveness. Moore and Dover hit .340 and .330 respectively, with Earl leading the team in RBIs with 30. Gookin’s .178 batting average was not impressive on paper, but many of his hits were of the “clutch” variety.

Toppy Vann and Ted Thomas combined to give Tech the best back-stopping duo in the Conference, as they handled pitchers well all season and in addition Ted hit .306.

Bob Patton had his best season on the hill, only hard luck kept his record down to 4-2. Jim Nelson finished fast with a pair of sterling relief performances.

Tech got off to its best Florida swing in years, returning to Atlanta with five victories and a tie in seven games, and 3-0 in conference competition. The lone loss came at the hands of Rollins, 5-3. Victories were two over Stetson and three over the Florida Gators. The tie was with Ohio State.
After splitting a pair with Wake Forrest, the Jackets swept three from Kentucky, Patton annexing two of the victories. Georgia managed to salvage the second game of a two-game series after Blemker had set them down with 5 hits, 10-0.

The Jackets traveled to Knoxville, and set the Volunteers down three straight, in a warm-up for their show-down series with Auburn.

In order to remain atop the Eastern Division, Tech had to take two of three from Auburn, and a team has never came through in such dramatic fashion. The Jackets fielding was off in the opener, as Blemker was tagged with an unearned run, but emerged victorious 2-1. In the second game hard-luck Bob Patton pitched one of the finest games of his career, but two unearned runs cost him the game 3-2.

For the first 8½ innings of the show-down game, aside from Lane Akers and Gray Potter the Jackets looked little like Champions. But one of the true tests of a Champ is the ability to come from behind. In the bottom of the ninth, Tech grabbed off four runs... on one hit, an infield single by Gookin, and literally stole the Division Title from Auburn, 8-7.

Blemker, of course, got the starting call in the opener of the SEC Playoffs against Alabama. It was a rocky day for the Cowboy, but he finally emerged victorious, 5-4. Alabama copped the second game, in the rain and mud, 11-10. Blemker returned with only two days rest to face the Tide in the finale. The sharp Blemker of old was on the hill that day, as he set the Tide down with seven hits, 10-1 to wrap up the Southeastern Conference Crown.

13 - 7 - 1 Record

THE 1957 EDITION of the Yellow Jacket Netmen, turned in a creditable season, copping 13 out of 21 season's matches, then finished second to powerful Tulane in the Southeastern Conference Tennis Tournament.

Lee Jones and Bob Nichols were again the Tech aces in the singles division, and combined to take first place in the Conference in doubles competition. Buddy Parker, Mike Meaffey, Sam Fleming and Paul Metz rounded out the squad.

In the Freshman competition, Ned Neeley and Harry Thompson took all comers to finish as the number one and two ranked Freshmen in the Conference respectively.

Losing only Lee Jones off this squad, Coach Bortell is looking to next year with anticipation and optimism.

NED NEELEY, NUMBER 1 FRESHMAN, RETURNS AN OVERHAND.

Tech Ranks High In Field Events

PACED BY BIG Fred Berman, who broke all existing records in the shot-put, and also copped the discus throw in all meets, the Georgia Tech Yellow Jacket Track Team compiled a successful season.

Barry Sugarman was one of the most versatile performers in the conference. He competed in the highjump, broad-jump, pole vault, and hurdles, and picked up valuable points in each meet.

Jack Keene took time out from his record-setting Gym Team activities to throw the javelin for Coach Dean’s field men.

Former Druid Hills ace Tim Singleton, led the Tech hurdlers, while Cole Bryan competed in all of the distance running events.

Past Most-Valuable-Player, and one of the top sprintmen in the conference, Martin Torrence once again gave Tech top representation in the dashes.

The Freshman team was paced by one of the most promising and versatile performers the Southeastern Conference has ever seen, James Brantley. Brantley will figure prominently in Coach Dean’s plans for next year.

Golfers Finish 3rd In SEC Matches

TECH GOLFERS started their season by a trip to Florida in March. The linksmen lost to FSU, Florida University, and Rollins, and defeated the Jacksonville Naval Air Station on this swing. Returning home they took Auburn, and then avenged their earlier defeat by Florida. Auburn returned the favor in Auburn on the 15th of April, and Vandy downed the Jackets on the 20th. Then they absorbed losses at the hands of Georgia and Tennessee.

At the SIC meet, however the Jackets gave a good account of themselves, finishing third in the SEC and seventh in the South.

Captain George Johnson led his team-mates, Ed Barnes, Gabe Hill, Tommy Matthews, Bland Johnson, Morris Copeland, Jimmy Sutton and Dan Smith to this successful finish.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA grabbed off the School Championship of the gridiron with Chi Psi and Phi Kappa Tau tying for second place.

Newman Club captured first place in the Pigskin League and was crowned Independent Champ.

All contests, were hard fought during the season, and there were many scoreless and one touchdown ties, as the defense prevailed over the offense.

Individual League Champs are as follows:

- Gold League—Alpha Tau Omega
- White League—Chi Phi
- Tornado League—Phi Kappa Tau
- Yellow Jacket League—Chi Psi
- Pigskin League—Newman Club

Volleyball Crown

VOLLEYBALL COMPETITION ON the league basis proved to be the closest in years. Each league consisted of several skilled teams.

Winning their respective leagues were Sigma Nu, Gold League; Beta Theta Pi, White League; Phi Kappa Sigma, Tornado League; Phi Sigma Kappa, Yellow Jacket League; and the Vets Club, Independent League.

These teams met to determine a school champion. Undefeated Sigma Nu took top honors in sweeping twelve victories.
Phi Delta Theta Cops Swimming Title

FIRST PLACE IN THE swimming meet was decided by one large point this year. Phi Delta Theta gained that point to take the meet from the second place SAE’s. A large margin of points separated the third place Beta Theta Pi’s.

The Phi Delts received their points by taking a first in the 200-yard medley, and tug of war; seconds in the 75-yard medley, 200-yard freestyle relay; and third places in the plunge for distance, treading with weights; and a fourth in the 100-yard freestyle.
BETA THETA PI, with Louis Paulk and Jack Van Volkenberg capturing third and fourth places respectively, grabbed the Cross Country title by a wide margin over their nearest competitor, Phi Delta Theta paced by Lloyd Sutter’s fifth place finish. Gordon Clayton paced the field to capture individual honors and earn third place for Delta Tau Delta. Richard Balte finished second for Sigma Chi, who finished fifth in the fraternity point race. Kappa Sigma, who didn’t have a man finish in the top five, came through with enough points in the second division to finish fourth.

THIS YEAR’S competition in intramural gym was the best ever at Tech. Almost all fraternities caught the spirit of intramural sports and were well represented. Throughout the meet the lead was swapped by TKE and Sigma Chi, with the latter finally becoming the new champion. This meet also produced two new stars competing for top honors. Stewart Massey of Sigma Nu and Dave Chandler of Sigma Chi were both triple medal winners. Sigma Nu finished third.
THE STRONG Phi Delta Theta team, roared back from a second place finish in 1957 to go all the way in 1958 to cop the School Championship. Paced by Paul Vickers and Joe Delaney, they first captured first place in the Gold League, they defeated all comers from other Fraternity Leagues, and then bested the Independent winners, The Newman Club, in the playoffs for the School Championship.

In the Fraternity Leagues, Tau Epsilon Pi finished second and Phi Gamma Delta third. League finishes were as follows:

- Gold League—Phi Delta Theta
- White League—Lambda Chi Alpha
- Tornado League—Phi Gamma Delta
- Yellow Jacket League—Tau Epsilon Pi
- Dribble League—Newman Club
- Pass League—Hellenic Club
- Independent Champ—Newman Club
Chi Psi Paces The Bowling Competition

Chi Psi, eked out a 10 pin victory over Pi Kappa Alpha, 2511-2501, to claim the School Championship. Chi Psi had won the Yellow Jacket League; Pi Kappa Alpha the Tornado League; Sigma Nu the Gold League; and Kappa Sigma the White League. Sigma Nu and Kappa Sigma placed third and fourth respectively in the playoffs.

Clarke of Theta Chi with an average of 111, and Irwin of Phi Kappa Sigma with 104 paced the individual scorers during season's play.

SAE and Chi Phi Vie For Paddleball

THE SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON team of Mike Mehaffey and Bob Nichols will battle the Chi Phi's Ned Neeley and Walter Rapp for the Paddleball title at a later date. This unusual situation was brought about because the competing teams were composed of Varsity Tennis players and the match had to be postponed until after the tennis season.

The SAE team of Sam Fleming and Harry Thompson and the Phi Delt team of Dan Curtis and John Smith were eliminated in the semi-finals.
ALPHA TAU OMEGA, led by Guthrie, Wildasin, and McCaughan grabbed off the Intramural Tennis Title. Sigma Nu, always a strong contender, finished second, while Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Kappa Sigma tied for third place in the hard fought contests.

Jim Ford, Sigma Nu, and defending Champion was eliminated in the semi-finals and had to settle for third place as hopes for a Sigma Nu repeat faded. Guthrie of Alpha Tau Omega and Prosser of Kappa Sigma met in the finals with Prosser being crowned school Champ.

COMPETITION WAS KEEN in the Intramural Golf Matches, but DeVaughn and Davison brought home enough points to render the SAE’s victors. Alpha Tau Omega and Chi Phi tied for second, with Lambda Chi Alpha and Chi Psi tied for fourth.
