THE GEORGIA TECH Interfraternity Council has the job of coordinating, supervising, and regulating the activities of twenty-seven fraternities and a sorority. Two representatives from each fraternity comprise the active membership. They, along with their officers, have done much toward the furthering of better relations between fraternities, administration, faculty, and other students. This year the National Interfraternity Conference was held in Atlanta. Much of the planning was accomplished through the efforts of the Georgia Tech I.F.C. Each year the I.F.C. through each individual chapter assists several charity agencies such as the Empty Stocking Fund, Old Newsboy Day, Grady Hospital Christmas Fund, and the Red Cross Blood Drive. Dances, concerts, and Greek Week make up much of the social activity for the Tech fraternity man.

DEAN GRIFFIN AND MEMBERS of the Interfraternity Council talk with housemothers and other guests at a tea in the Wilby Room.
UNDER THE LEADERSHIP of Jay Daneman, and with thirty-three pledges, one of the largest pledge classes in its history, the Zeta Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Pi is enjoying one of its finest years. The social season was sprinkled with parties and highlighted by the Pinning Dance and Parents' Weekend in February and the Sweetheart Dance in the winter quarter. The Zeta Chapter ranked high in scholastic standing and participation in intramural events. Some of the men representing AEPi in campus activities are Ken Lubel, Alpha Pi Mu; Chick Schwartz, Koseme; Stan Goldberg, Rambler; Les Morganstern, Toastmasters; Grant Schneider, Drama Tech; and Jerry Averbuch, tennis team.

The AEPi house is given warmth and cheer by its mother's club and its housemother, Mrs. F. Gordon.

BETA IOTA CHAPTER of Alpha Tau Omega was the first national fraternity on the Georgia Tech campus, having been established in 1888.

ATO's have been very active this year, as in other years. Alpha Tau Omega, in the fall quarter, won the league and school football championships, the league and school volleyball championships, and won the Tech cross country championship. Out of a possible 65 athletic points, ATO totaled 53. Alpha Tau Omega also won the Marlboro contest, by collecting the most Marlboro cigarette packages, and received a hi-fi, stereophonic record player.

During the spring quarter, the annual Spring Formal was held and a Sweetheart was crowned. This is the biggest social event of the fraternity.

AFTER FINISHING SECOND in the race for the IFC cup in 1958, the Betas are making preparations to move up a notch in 1959. A third place Ramblin' Reck marked the beginning. Social affairs at Tara proceeded with enjoyable and repeated success. The winter quarter schedule was highlighted by the annual Ice Skating party and Winter Formal. Upholding the tradition of Beta leadership on campus. Dick Lee served as president of the IFC, was tapped for ANAK, and was selected for Who's Who. Keeping a guiding hand on publications: Hal Wightman, Fred Reimers, and Barney Wiggins were respective business managers of the Technique, Engineer, and Rambler. Oscar Persons held the job of Technique Sports Editor, and President Johnny Parker was also very active.

THE CHI PHIS give their new pledges a hearty welcome on Pledge Sunday as rush week comes to an abrupt halt after a lot of work.

ON DECEMBER 24, 1824, the Princeton Order of Chi Phi was founded at the College of New Jersey, now Princeton University. From that time forward, chapters of Chi Phi have been established at the outstanding colleges and universities throughout the country.

On June 2, 1904, the charter of the Omega Chapter was granted. In 1910 a chapter house was obtained, making Chi Phi the first fraternity on the Tech campus to own its own house.

The Chi Phis started the new school year off in fine style by pledging a fine group of young prospects. The brothers expect that its pledge class will take an active part in campus organizations. At present, the brothers and pledges are active in many campus honoraries and activities.

UNDER THE DIRECTION of George Dorr, Iota Delta enjoyed one of its most successful rush seasons in several years. Scholarship is still stressed around the Chi Psi Lodge with the Chi Psis showing very strongly in the scholarship race. The bowling team captured the school championship last winter and seems to be preparing for another strong bid for the coveted title this year. The other intramural teams have made a very good showing and continue to provide strong competition for all the teams in the league. Many of the brothers represent Chi Psi in Tau Beta Pi, Eta Kappa Nu, Phi Kappa Phi, Pi Tau Sigma, etc. The outstanding social events of the year are the annual Spring Sweetheart Dance and the Founders Day Banquet.
NOW IS THE TIME FOR ALL GOOD ME'S TO COME TO THE AID OF THEIR CAR.

DELTA SIGMA PHI
Alpha Gamma Chapter

DELTA SIGMA PHI started the school year with a new housemother, Mrs. Carolyn Marshall. Mrs. Marshall's sweetness and charm quickly made her a great favorite with the brothers. They had a very successful rush season, pledging 38 men, to lead the Delta Sig chapters all over the country. The football team had an average season, winning 3 and losing 2. The big social events of the fall were the Carnation Ball, at which Miss Susie Touchstone was crowned Sweetheart, and a Christmas party for a group of orphans. During the winter, pledges were busy defending the Help Week trophy Delta Sig won last year, and preparing for the big pledge-active football game. The main attraction during the spring is the Shipwreck Ball, famous for its exotic decorations.

DECORATING for a party gives these budding artists a chance to use their wild imaginations.

EVENTUALLY, these industrious Delta Sigs will have their Homecoming display ready for the judging.
SINCE LAST SEPTEMBER, the names of Delts were listed 38 times on the rolls of Tech honor societies, including three in Who’s Who in American Colleges and Universities. Other Delts participated in 25 different campus organizations. Delts were elected presidents of ODK, PiDE, SAM, the Bulldog Club, Scabbard and Blade, Wesley Foundation, and the Junior class. The editor of the Rambler was one of six Delts serving as editors on the staffs of Tech publications. The annual Rainbow Ball and house party highlighted a full social year of regularly scheduled combo parties and record parties. Sportswise, the Delt bowling team earned first place in the Gold League, and the volleyball team earned first place in its league and second place in the school-wide playoffs.

Georgia Tech Chapter

THE NEWEST FRATERNITY on the Georgia Tech campus, Delta Upsilon, is completing its second year. Chartered in the spring of 1957, Delta Upsilon has grown from a small group of determined men to a fraternity demanding recognition and power. The DU's live at the corner of Techwood and 5th Street in a newly remodeled house. Various social functions are held as well as parties at their house. Realizing the importance of the well-rounded engineer and the help that a fraternity can give to accomplish that goal, high emphasis has been placed on scholarship and social activity. Members of Delta Upsilon take an active part in the many phases of life on the Georgia Tech campus.

THE MEN WITH THE SOUTHERN TRADITION came to Tech in 1895 and since that time have been very active in school activities. This year has been no exception.

Starting the year with the biggest pledge class on campus, the chapter followed up with Convivium and the Rose Ball during the winter quarter. Then, in the spring, the brothers from Tech, Emory, and Georgia combined efforts to hold the annual Old South Ball. This traditional southern affair featured a parade down Peachtree Street and a big-name orchestra.

This year Kappa Alpha is looking forward to the continuation of its record of being the place where friendliness in the finest of Southern tradition exists.

KAPPA SIGMA started off this school year with a very successful rush season, followed shortly by a second place award in the Homecoming display contest. Again the Kappa Sigs were active in intramurals, winning our league in football, placing third in the swimming meet, and being active in all other sports. The house with the big white and brown rock was active socially with numerous house dances, off-campus parties, and combined parties with the Kappa Sigs from Georgia State. The year was highlighted by the Founder’s Day banquet and the Black and White formal.

The many positions of leadership held by Kappa Sigs on campus enabled them to place Bob Soderholm, Mickey O’Donnel, Armand Breard, Delano Knight and Jim Davis in Who’s Who in American Colleges.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA was founded in 1909 at Boston University. Now it has matured into one of the largest social fraternities in America. Although one of the youngest of national fraternities, Lambda Chi Alpha is already rich in tradition.

The Beta Kappa Chapter at Tech was established on October 6, 1942, after its honorable and enviable record during its affiliation with the old Beta Kappa National Fraternity.

Far from being unsocial, the Lambda Chi's each year have a host of social functions such as rush parties, Founder’s Day, the annual Christmas party for underprivileged children, and the highlight of the year, the Crescent Ball, where the Sweetheart is named.

UNDER THE LEADERSHIP of Presidents Russ Harris and Bobby Turner, the Phi Delts began the year by adding 36 men to their ranks. As the year progressed they accumulated IFC points by placing third in the Intramural Cross Country race, first in the Intramural Swimming meet, first in the cake race, and by placing in other IFC events. Their outstanding social events include a Winter Formal, a Sweetheart Ball, house-parties and numerous parties and dances at the house. Probably their greatest achievement was in campus activities. Bobby Turner was President of ANAK, the Bulldog Club, and was on the Homecoming Committee; George Cates was President of the Ramblin' Reck Club and Chairman of the Homecoming Committee; and Richard Jacob was President of Koseme.

PHI EP GOT OFF to an excellent start scholastically by finishing up last year third on campus. Under the able leadership of Gil Halpern and Lloyd Kahn, they are planning to do things bigger and better than ever. Beginning the year with a bang, Phi Eps took highest honors in the Ramblin' Reck Parade by coming in first place. Then two trophies came their way for participation in the Empty Stocking Drive, one for the largest amount collected for the small fraternities and the other for the largest amount collected per man for all the fraternities on campus. The highlight of the social season at Phi Epsilon Pi was the annual Dreamgirl Dance and Coronation held at the Dinkler Plaza, at which time Miss Peggy Ehrlich and her court were presented.
THE GAMMA TAU CHAPTER of Phi Gamma Delta began this year with thirty-three new pledges. The Fijis broke the YMCA Religious Breakfast attendance record for the second consecutive year, and furnished many leaders in campus activities. Some of the men who led in campus activities were Bud Abate, Brad Baker, Don Rentz, Andy Clark, and Bill White. Highlighting the social season were the big Fiji Island party, the Pig Dinner, and the Winter Quarter Formal. Weekend parties included dances, hayrides, and dinners.

This year the plans for the new chapter house, to be built on Fowler Street, were completed. Designed to house forty men, it will contain recreation, social, dining, and sleeping facilities, as well as guest rooms, offices, and a housemother’s suite.

ON OCTOBER 19, 1850, Phi Kappa Sigma was founded at the University of Pennsylvania. Following a policy of conservation expansion, the fraternity has grown to include 46 chapters at leading Universities and Colleges throughout the United States and Canada. Alpha Nu Chapter was begun at Tech in 1904 and was one of the first Tech fraternities to own its own house. Active in campus leadership, members of Phi Kappa Sigma are always spirited competitors in both intramural and intercollegiate athletics. The social side is not overlooked, with the grand event of the year being the Black and Gold Formal held each winter. Combining social with service, the Phi Kappa Sigmas hold an annual Christmas Party for orphans in the greater Atlanta area.

PHI KAPPA TAU came to the Tech campus in 1929 and has grown steadily in size and prestige. Fall Rush, with its lavish parties and congenial bull sessions, resulted in another fine pledge class.

Fall activities found Phi Tau winning its league in intramural football and finishing second in the school playoffs. For the third time in the last seven quarters, Phi Tau won the school Scholarship Trophy. The biggest social event of the Fall Quarter was the Sweetheart Formal at which the Phi Tau sweetheart was crowned.

The Phi Taus are well represented in campus honoraries and activities. These include Phi Kappa Phi, Tau Beta Pi, the Rambler and the Blue Print, as well as the Band and Glee Club.
This is the thirty-sixth year at Tech for the Kappa Deuteron Chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa. This year the athletically minded members won the volleyball championship. The tri-captain of the basketball team, Bud Blemker, who was an outstanding athlete for 1957 and '58, as well as this year, is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa.

Brains, as well as brawn, are shown by the Phi Sigma Kappas. They rank second scholastically out of 27 fraternities on the campus. Third place in Homecoming displays was won by Phi Sigma Kappa.

An important social function of the winter quarter is the Founders’ Day Banquet and Dance held during March. The winner of the Greek Goddess contest was sponsored by Phi Sigma Kappa, last year.
