The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson vs The Late Show
Starring Joan Rivers

"I just think (Joan Rivers) handled it badly ... I also think she was less than smart and didn't show much style."

Johnny Carson

"(Johnny Carson) can stay on another 24 years and support six more wives. And any time he wants to guest-host my show, he can."

Joan Rivers

"Funny thing about this 60-year-old icon (Carson): the only time he freshes up his act is when some upstart invades his turf."

IRAN ARMS DEAL

"... The president's operatives sent $50 million to $100 million worth of weapons to Iran. They used the CIA to get around normal legal restrictions on arms exports, and they went to extraordinary lengths to keep the Joint Chiefs of Staff out of the picture."

Newsweek

"Much of the attention is focused on marine Lt. Col. Oliver North, the National Security Council staffer who handles many of the president's most sensitive jobs and was the project manager on the weapons deal."

Newsweek

"With each $1 drop per barrel, the state loses an estimated 25,000 jobs and $100 million in revenue."

U.S. News and World Report

"This is not just a local problem. Oil is a key national industry, and it is more important to the overall economy than the auto industry."

Bernard Weinstein, director of the Center for Enterprising at Southern Methodist University

TAXPAYERS

"I'd be happy with lower rates as opposed to keeping all the deductions."
Doug Shinnick
Chicago drugstore owner

"It's important that corporate decisions be made on market factors. Now a lot of them seem driven by taxes, like the corporate buyouts."
Dick Allen

THE FLIGHT OF VOYAGER

"If people hadn't died to do significant things, we'd still be looking over the rumps of oxen trying to get from New York to California."

Dick Rutan, copilot of the Voyager

Voyager: "a plane light and strong enough to take off with 3.6 times its own weight in fuel."

U.S. News and World Report

"The journey of 25,012 miles set records for distance flown without refueling and for endurance by aviators on such a flight."

Atlanta Journal-Constiution
