Best Opening Line to Meet a Girl:

Excuse me, is this your 20 dollar bill?
Oops! I spilled my drink!
You look like you're from UGA — they might not understand though!

Didn't I see your picture next to the word gorgeous in the dictionary?
Are you drunk yet?
Your lips are like wine and I feel like getting drunk!

Best Opening Line to Meet a Tech Girl:

What's your GPA?

What's your schedule?

nothing . . . absolutely nothing works

Why here?

Hi my name is Anthony Priest.
Best Excuse For Being Late to Class:

I thought it was Sunday
The bus couldn't make it up the 3rd street hill
I was walking to class and had a flat tire
I got a squirrel in my exhaust fan
It's daylight savings time??
I was all "tied up"
My dog had an anxiety attack
My friends glued my shoes to the ceiling — while I was in them
My roommate forgot to wake me up

Best Place to See a Movie:

The Columbia was overwhelmingly chosen as Tech students’ favorite place to see a movie. Unfortunately, it has closed. Movies will never be the same for the giant screen has come and gone. Nothing will ever be able to replace the Columbia. Future generations won’t know what they’re missing.

Reasons Why You Are at Tech:

Inertia — I started here and inertia keeps me here until I can graduate and go somewhere else.

Continental drift

Harmonic convergence

Atlanta is warmer than Ohio.

Best engineering school I could afford

I came here to find a foreign boyfriend

I subconsciously don't want to meet anyone

It's cheap

To meet women

Temporary insanity

Took a wrong turn on the way to Florida

The application was easy to fill out

Lots of 'men'

I'm hiding from my mother — she'd never look here.

Money — I want it — I will get it

I like abuse

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

In the six years since Americans first heard of a mysterious immunity-robbed disease from which no one recovers, AIDS has killed nearly 25,000 Americans, millions of dollars have poured into medical research and President Reagan has proclaimed the plague "Public Health Enemy No. 1."
In an effort to keep the Persian Gulf open to navigation, the United States began in July to escort vessels to protect them from Iran. In September the U.S. Navy blew up an Iranian ship that was caught laying mines in the Gulf. Several mines were confiscated.
A 24-day strike by the National Football League players ended in mid-October when the union capitulated and went to court instead of trying to fight the club owners at the bargaining table.
THE YEAR IN REVIEW

A barge filled with 3,128 tons of garbage became a symbol of the nation’s worsening problem with solid waste management. The barge was banned by six states and three foreign countries before an incinerator reduced it to ash.
The Senate rejected President Reagan's nomination of Robert H. Bork to the Supreme Court by a 58-42 vote, which ended a long contentious debate over a judge alternately portrayed as a brilliant jurist and a dangerous extremist.
Marine Lt. Col. Oliver L. North was a key official in the plan to finance anti-government rebels in Nicaragua with money from arms sales to Iran. In testimony before the Iran-Contra hearings in Washington, North became somewhat of a celebrity.

Fred Astaire, who epitomized Hollywood's elegance for 25 years dancing in top hat and tails with Ginger Rogers and other stars, died of pneumonia in June at the age of 88.

Liberace, the glittering showman and pianist who captivated fans for four decades with an inimitable personal and musical style, died quietly at his home in February at the age of 67.

John Huston, who directed such films as "The Maltese Falcon" and "The Treasure of the Sierra Madre," died in his sleep in August at the age of 81.

Lee Marvin, the gravel-voiced Oscar winner who died in August at the age of 63, was remembered by colleagues as an actor who really was among the good guys even though he often portrayed the hard-as-nails rogue.

Jackie Gleason, the rotund "Great One" who got laughs and riches as a blustering bus driver in the television series "The Honeymooners," died in June at the age of 71.

Lorne Greene, who for 14 years played the firm but gentle father to three sons on television's "Bonanza," died in September at the age of 72.

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

The Dow Jones industrial stock average dropped 508 points, the largest in history, on Monday, October 19th. The "crash" stripped $500 billion from the market value of U.S. securities.
THE YEAR IN REVIEW

In October, an earthquake measuring 6.1 on the Richter scale rattled Southern California. The quake, the most powerful to hit California since 1971, was precipitated by rising levels of stress in the San Andreas system of geological faults. The tremors were followed by a record 108 degree heatwave; locals gave the phenomenon the nickname "shake'n'bake."

Damage was extensive and sometimes catastrophic. Six persons were killed, 100 injured, and many others left homeless. Essential services were often disrupted throughout Southern California. Perma-bond stock closed up 1½ at 12¼, while china stocks hit record lows.
