Cooperative Curation Symposium and Workshop
GALILEO KNOWLEDGE REPOSITORY
DIGITAL SCHOLARSHIP FROM THE INSTITUTIONS OF THE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM OF GEORGIA
August 8-9, 2012
Clough Commons, Georgia Institute of Technology

Cooperative Curation: Inter-institutional Approaches to Supporting Scholarly Communication
August 8, 2012
Auditorium 144

8:30-9:00 Registration and continental breakfast

9:00-9:15 Welcome  Toby Graham

9:15-10:00 Overview: Institutional repositories, Open Access, consortial work Tyler Walters

10:00-10:30 Break

10:30-11:15 Case study 1 - eScholarship, Justin Gonder

11:15-12:00 Case study 2 - OhioLINK, John Davison

12:00-1:30 Lunch (on your own)

1:30-2:15 Case study 3 - Texas Digital Library, Ryan Steans

2:15-3:00 Case study 4 - GKR, Marlee Givens

3:00-3:30 Break

3:30-4:30 Moderated panel (future trends)
Robert McDonald, Tyler Walters, Katherine Skinner, Tim Donohue; moderator: Julie Speer

4:30-4:45 Conclusion Julie Speer

5:00-6:30 Networking reception - Ferst Room, Georgia Tech Library
Cooperative Curation: Georgia’s Approach to Statewide Repository Services

August 9, 2012

8:30-9:00 Registration and continental breakfast

9:00-9:45 Opening keynote Catherine Murray-Rust

9:45-10:30 Breakout session 1

MGT: Governance/Sustainability Merryll Penson*, Kathy Tomajko, Jeff Carrico
- Governance
- Identifying stakeholders
- Committee structure
- Partner institutions
- Staffing
- Sustainability
- Economic issues
- Potential plans and outcomes
- Due diligence
- Options considered and chosen

TECH: Digitization Andy Carter*
- Overview of grant responsibilities
- Digital Library of Georgia (DLG)
- Content and Metadata Committee
- GKR Drupal site
- Scanning at DLG
- Standards/Workflow
- Cost estimate/time
- Issues/Communications/Lessons Learned

10:30-11:00 Break

11:00-11:45 Breakout session 2

MGT: Outreach/Evaluation
Jennifer Campbell-Meier*, Mariann Burright, Heather Jeffcoat
- Identifying the campus community
- Site evaluation
- Outreach evaluation
- Repository evaluation

TECH: Preservation/Server infrastructure
Larry Hansard*, Chris Helms, Bill Anderson
- LOCKSS and MetaArchive
- LOCKSS plugin development
- Other preservation architectures
- Configuring server for multiple DSpace instances
- System backup

TECH: Metadata
Catherine Downey*, Marlee Givens, Susan Parham, Robin Fay, Andy Carter
- GKR metadata origins
- GKR metadata guidelines
- Creating metadata in DSpace
- Training GKR partners
- List of disciplines

11:45-1:15 Lunch: Table Talks (boxed lunch provided)

Small Institutions/ Repository Managers
Classroom 280
DSpace/Digital Commons/ Fedora
Classroom 129
ETDs/Archival Content
Classroom 262
1:15-2:00 Breakout session 3

MGT: Copyright
Mariann Burright*, Marlee Givens
- GKR Copyright Services
- Round Robin discussion of IR copyright issues
- Tools for guidance to help with issues identified
- ARL Best Practices in Fair Use/ IR section
- Models of copyright services - ARL
- Models - other institutions

TECH: Harvesting/Mapping tool
Larry Hansard*, Bill Anderson, Brad Baxter
- OAI Harvesting Introduction
- Harvesting from DSpace
- Harvesting from Digital Commons
- Initial Harvest/incremental harvest
- DSpace built-in harvester vs. command line
- Mapping tool data
- Cron jobs
- Mapping tool overview

2:00-2:15 Break

2:15-3:00 Breakout session 4

MGT: Content Submission
Fatih Oguz*, Changwoo Yang
- Content approval process for digitization
- Distributed nature of the content
- GKR Metadata Guidelines
- Virtual Internship
- Intern selection criteria
- Intern training process and procedures
- Challenges & Lessons learned

TECH: Metasearching
Larry Hansard*, Patrick Etienne, Keith Gilbertson
- Customizing the GKR Interface
- Creating a new Home Page
- Creating new Help and About pages
- Changing Communities to Disciplines
- Adding the Institution index
- Modifying the advanced search types
- Modifying the simple item record view
- Adding icons to the Browse By results
- PubMed Central Open Access Import

3:00-3:15 Break

3:15-4:15 General session: Lessons learned  Moderator: Marlee Givens

4:15-4:30 Conclusion  Marlee Givens

* = breakout session coordinator

Note: Breakout sessions will include two concurrent offerings, one from each workshop track (management and technology), except for one session where three will be offered (one management and two technology).
Dr. P. Toby Graham, Deputy University Librarian at University of Georgia

Dr. P. Toby Graham is the director of the Digital Library of Georgia at the University of Georgia, a collaborative digitization program providing access to collections on Georgia history and life. The DLG is the cultural heritage digital initiative of GALILEO, Georgia’s virtual library. Graham is also director of the Hargrett Library at the University of Georgia, which consists of the Rare Books and Manuscripts Library, Georgiana Collection, University Archives, and Records Management. He is co-director of the Civil Rights Digital Library initiative, and he leads digitization for Georgia HomePLACE, an ongoing effort to enhance access to research collections on local and family history. Graham is the 2004 recipient of the Alabama Author Award for Non-Fiction for his book A Right to Read: Segregation and Civil Rights in Alabama’s Public Libraries, 1900-1965 and recipient of the ALISE/Eugene Garfield Award and Phyllis Dain Library History Dissertation Award for his doctoral research. He holds master’s degrees in history and library science and a PhD in library science from the University of Alabama.

Catherine Murray-Rust, Vice Provost for Learning Excellence and Dean of Libraries, Georgia Tech

Catherine Murray-Rust became Vice Provost for Learning Excellence in January 2012. She also serves as Dean of Libraries, a post she has held since August 2008. In addition to her administrative responsibility for several academic programs, 160 faculty and staff, almost 500,000 square feet of central campus space, and a library budget of about $14 million, and serving as the faculty advisor to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society’s Team in Training. She was a group leader in the Oxford Study Abroad program in 2012. She previously served as the Dean of Libraries at Colorado State University, and Associate University Librarian at Oregon State University. She worked at Cornell University Libraries for more than 20 years in a variety of positions, including reference librarian, training and implementation librarian in the Systems Office, and Associate University Librarian. Her final position at Cornell was Director of Campus Delivery for the university’s project to reengineer business systems and install new software. From 1973 to 1977, she worked for Reuters News Agency and Oxfam/VOCAD in London.

Murray-Rust’s educational background includes a charter in Librarianship from the Library Association of Great Britain (1976), a graduate degree in Library and Information Studies from the University of London (1974) and a bachelor’s degree in political science and history from Mount Holyoke College. She also completed graduate studies in international nutrition at Cornell University (1979), graduate coursework and independent study in African politics and international relations at the University of Dar es Salaam in Tanzania (1971–72) and participated in an internship with the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia (1969).

Tyler Walters, Dean of Libraries, Virginia Tech

Tyler Walters is the Dean of University Libraries, Virginia Tech. Previously Walters was the Associate Dean of the Library and Information Center, Georgia Institute of Technology. He was a 2008-2010 Fellow in the Association of Research Libraries Research Libraries Leadership Fellows program. Walters is a founding Board member of the Educopia Institute and Steering Committee member of the MetaArchive Cooperative. He serves on many professional bodies such as an elected member of the National Digital Stewardship Alliance (Library of Congress), Steering Committee for the International Conference on Open Repositories, Interim Governing Board for the Unified Digital Formats Registry, Editorial Board of the International Journal of Digital Curation, and the Advisory Board for the Digital Information Management program, University of Arizona. He teaches graduate LIS courses for Arizona and for San Jose State University. Walters has presented at numerous conferences, has published over twenty-five journal articles, and is a recipient of the Society of American Archivists’ Ernst Posner Award for best article in the American Archivist. Walters is currently a Ph.D. candidate in Managerial Leadership for the Information Professions, Simmons College Graduate School of Library and Information Science.