Shalin Patel, another Freshman Partner Peer Leader, said in his nomination that “I truly believe she [Darcy] stands for all that [the award is] enthusiasm, helpfulness and great attitude.”

All categories increased in Customer Surveys

Auxiliary Services conducted its fourth annual customer satisfaction survey, reflecting an increase in every department in overall student satisfaction.

Collected and analyzed by the Georgia Tech Office of Organizational Development, the on-line survey randomly selected students, faculty and staff for participation.

Students ranked overall satisfaction of each department from 1-5 with 5 being the highest:

- 4.10 Health Services ↑.08 from 2003
- 3.53 Housing ↑.13 from 2003
- 4.09 Student Center ↑.12 from 2003
- 3.85 Bookstore ↑.27 from 2003
- 4.12 BuzzCard ↑.10 from 2003
- 3.49 GT Dining ↑.18 from 2003
- 2.83 Parking ↑.17 from 2003
- 3.44 Stinger ↑.27 from 2003
- 3.93 Stingerette ↑.49 from 2003
- 3.82 Tech Trolley (new this year)

“What you are doing is very important for Georgia Tech and our students,” said G. Wayne Clough, president, Georgia Tech, addressing the Freshman Partners at the annual recognition and awards reception. “They [students] deserve every chance they get to succeed.”

Conference Services

More than 2,000 people joined the Georgia Tech campus during May and June as the Conference Services began its summer programs. The programs ranged from athletics like the Women’s Basketball Elite Camp, Swim Camp, Defense-Defense Football Camp and Lovic Lacrosse to academic camps, like Engineering Explorers and Emagination (sic) Computer programs.

Facilities

Reinvestments

- The Student Center Commons opened six new meeting rooms. Named after Midtown streets, the Piedmont, Juniper, Crescent, Cypress, Spring and Pine started on-line group reservations April 1.
- In addition to the lounge spaces scattered throughout, the Commons also added a new performance stage (and large screen television), a copy center, computer hubs, and renovated space for its retail operations, STA Travel, College Optical and Hair Cuttery.
- New tenants moved into the Commons, the Student Government Association, WREK radio, Student Involvement offices and PCS Copy Center (a Printing & Copying Services/Student Center collaboration, offering 24-hour copying).
- The Student Center replaced its Food Court kitchen floor, eliminating leaks to the Recreation Area.
- The Post Office updated its student box assignment process with the Office of Information Technology completing all Banner changes.
- The Post Office also implemented a cost savings program for outgoing first class departmental mail, predicting a $10,000 to $15,000 savings to the campus.
- Housing started its group housing sign-up on April 1 and analyzed during this quarter that it would be 100 percent occupied by fall semester.

Parking

Parking conducted its on-line registration from April 15 to June 30.

- 10,532 total on-line applications
- 6,052 renewals
- 2,102 new requests
- 2,287 change zone requests

Barnes & Noble @ Georgia Tech

- As of May 2004, total annual revenue increased 13 percent more than year ending May 2003.
- The Technology Center collaborated with the Residential Network (ResNet), verifying the availability of necessary computer hardware and software and published its annual Technology Center Catalog. Newly admitted students received an e-mail listing the on-line catalog version as well as a printed copy mailed to their homes.
